NASHVILLE DIVISION

2025 APR 14 AM 11:50

Dr. Regina Jordan-Sodiq, Plaintiff, v. State of Tennessee, et al., Defendants.

U.S. DISTRICT COURT
MIDDLE DISTRICT OF TN

Case No. 3:25-CV-00288 Judge Eli Richardson Jury Demand

PLAINTIFF'S RESPONSE TO NAVY FEDERAL CREDIT UNION'S MOTION TO DISMISS

Introduction Plaintiff, Dr. Regina Jordan-Sodiq, respectfully submits this response opposing Defendant Navy Federal Credit Union's ("Navy") Motion to Dismiss. Plaintiff addresses each of Navy's contentions systematically to demonstrate the sufficiency of her claims, the appropriateness of the court's jurisdiction, and the adequacy of her service of process. Plaintiff further objects to Navy's request for dismissal with prejudice, which is unwarranted under both law and equity. Plaintiff respectfully requests this Honorable Court deny Defendant's motion.

It is noteworthy that Katherine Rogers, representing Navy Federal Credit Union, also serves as legal counsel for Defendant Fifth Third Bank, which raises procedural and representational nuances relevant to this case.

I. Service of Process Plaintiff asserts that service was properly executed in compliance with Tenn. R. Civ. P. 4.03(2) and 4.04(4). Plaintiff served process to Navy Federal Credit Union's registered agent in Tennessee, The Corporation Service Company, located at 265 Brookview Centre Way, Suite 203, Knoxville, TN 37919. Evidence of service includes confirmation request receipts, proof of mailing, return on service of summons by mail (Exhibit C), USPS summon receipts (Exhibit D #1 and #2), USPS receipts (#9410 8310 0935 5003 0010 04 and #9410 8301 0935 5003 3651 51; Exhibits E1 and E2), and Affidavit, Notice of Service, and Certificate of Service. Enclosed are Plaintiff's responses dated March 14, 2025 (Exhibit A), and April 3, 2025 (Exhibit B).

Defendant's allegations regarding service lack merit and do not justify dismissal under Rule 12(b)(5).

1. Good Faith and Diligence

- Plaintiff acted in good faith throughout the service process and promptly addressed any confusion regarding Defendant's registered service address and jurisdictional transitions. Plaintiff respectfully requests the Court's discretion in recognizing these efforts.
- Any perceived delay in service resulted from confusion regarding Defendant's registered service address and jurisdictional transitions upon case removal. Plaintiff acted promptly to address these challenges and confirms that corrected service efforts are now underway to eliminate any outstanding procedural deficiencies.

2. Affidavit of Service Plaintiff includes her sworn affidavit attesting to the steps taken to serve Defendant within the required timeframe.

3. Request for Clarification To prevent future procedural issues, Plaintiff respectfully requests that Defendant specify the precise location designated for service of process to eliminate ambiguity and delays.

Should this Honorable Court find any procedural deficiencies in service, Plaintiff respectfully requests leave to correct such deficiencies pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. Rule 4(m), which permits time to cure errors in service.

II. Specificity in Claims Contrary to Navy's assertions, Plaintiff's Complaint provides sufficient factual allegations to state a claim against Navy. Plaintiff specifically identifies Navy's role in acts of harassment and covert gang-stalking that caused harm to Plaintiff, distinguishing Navy's actions from those of other defendants.

Evidence supporting Plaintiff's claims includes Exhibit 'C,' a Navy Federal Credit Union brochure addressed to "Mr. Joshua A. Graves" at 1757 Autumnwood Blvd, Clarksville, TN 37042, received on April 10, 2025. Plaintiff is the sole owner of this property, purchased as a new dwelling in 2014. Additionally, Plaintiff has been a member of Navy Federal Credit Union since 1994, as demonstrated in Exhibit 'D.' Navy Federal Credit Union maintains accurate records of its members' identities and addresses, confirming that the designation of "Mr. Joshua A. Graves" is fictitious.

Plaintiff asserts that this falsification was a deliberate act by the defendants to harass, intimidate, and engage in coordinated gang-stalking against Plaintiff.

Plaintiff's allegations comply with Tenn. R. Civ. P. 8.01, requiring a "short and plain statement of the claim showing that the pleader is entitled to relief." Furthermore, Tennessee courts recognize the need for leniency in construing pro se pleadings to ensure access to justice (Steele v. Bradley, 684 S.W.2d 375, Tenn. App. 1984).

III. Legal Basis for Claims Defendant argues that Tenn. Code Ann. §39-17-308 and §39-17-315 do not provide private rights of action. Plaintiff counters that while these statutes are criminal in nature, the conduct described—harassment and stalking—provides grounds for related civil claims under tort law, such as intentional infliction of emotional distress (IIED) and invasion of privacy. Plaintiff reserves the right to pursue additional claims addressing the harmful and unlawful actions of Navy.

Moreover, Plaintiff notes that Navy's conduct falls under actionable civil claims, and further discovery will substantiate these allegations.

IV. Conspiracy Allegations Defendant contends that Plaintiff's conspiracy allegations lack particularity. Plaintiff clarifies that under Tennessee law, a conspiracy claim requires:

1. Common Design: An agreement among defendants to engage in harassment and intimidation.
2. Concerted Actions: Coordinated activities by Navy and others to achieve unlawful objectives.
